First year students’ opinions of the Göteborg University Library: User survey 2006

First year students experience lack of information control, i.e. they are uncertain how to seek out and locate information.

Students appreciate the staff and the service offered.

Students like the library locations.

Students experience a need for more space for individual and group studies.

How does the Library contribute …?

Cooperation with the Students’ union during introduction week

Library introduction for all new students

Studio and special services for dyslectic and visually impaired students

Book a librarian service to support information seeking

Librarians’ involvement in courses and programmes aiding student transition into higher education

Contact: Britt Omstedt, Göteborg University Library, britt.omstedt@ub.gu.se