

Exploring person-centered care in acute psychosis care settings

Findings from the Person-Centered Psychosis Care project

Katarina Allerby

Katarina Allerby, RN, MSc in psychiatric care, has through her work in outpatient care settings followed patients with psychosis on their recovery-journey over many years. She realized the potential of person-centered care and conducted the studies included in this thesis to explore what promise it holds for the most acute phases of psychosis.

ISBN 978-91-8009-913-4 (PRINT)
ISBN 978-91-8009-914-1 (PDF)

Printed by Stema Specialtryck AB, Borås

SAHLGRENKA ACADEMY
INSTITUTE OF NEUROSCIENCE AND PHYSIOLOGY

UNIVERSITY OF GOTHENBURG